1250 Folsom Street is a rare chance to lease an entire three-story live/work building in the center of SoMa. The ±5,750 SF property pairs two floors of open, flexible workspace with a full penthouse residence on top. An elevator serves every level.

The ground and second floors have exposed timber beams, large street-facing windows, hardwood and finished concrete floors, and open plans. They suit creative office, studio, showroom, wellness, or professional use. The top-floor residence has high ceilings, a chef's kitchen, skylights, and abundant natural light. A spiral stair leads to a private roof deck with downtown skyline views.

The building comes with two-car parking and will be delivered vacant and ready for immediate occupancy. It's well suited to a founder, creative firm, or business owner who wants to work downstairs and live upstairs, or to a company looking for a distinctive standalone headquarters in SoMa.
